

Welcome to Vancouver

Bienvenue à Vancouver

We hope you enjoy your stay in our city! We recommend using transit and walking to get around Vancouver. The blue line illustrates the Canada Line SkyTrain, part of Vancouver's rapid-transit network. The red lines are routes served by buses, but can also be walked. If you ever get turned around, remember that if you're facing the mountains that you are facing North.

Vancouver's Transit System

We recommend teams purchase "Faresaver" transit tickets. A book of ten "1-Zone" tickets costs $21, and can be purchased at any convenience store, such as the 7-Eleven downstairs at the Arrivals Terminal at YVR Airport.

Travel between the airport and Vancouver requires a "2-Zone" ticket during the weekdays before 6pm (all other times you can use a "1-Zone" ticket). "1-zone" Faresaver tickets can be upgraded at station ticket vending machines using the "Add Fare" option.

All travel between Vancouver destinations (such as the hotel and Curling Club) only requires a "1-Zone" ticket. You can play your transit trips using Google Maps (maps.google.ca, or your smart phone's native app).
